

COLLECTION & CAMPUS ART TRAIL

All across the campus you'll find pieces of artwork, from public sculptures to pieces hidden in departments and offices. This is Loughborough University's art collection, and it exists to enhance the campus environment, celebrate the history of the university, and inspire creativity in its students.

We know it can be tricky finding your way around a new place, so why not get to know the university using the Campus Art Trail? Visit this collection of outdoor sculptures and learn the campus layout as you go – you'll be an expert in no time.
